CHILD CRISIS ARIZONA RECEIVES $3,000 FROM ENTERPRISE HOLDINGS FOUNDATION

Mesa, AZ – The Enterprise Holdings Foundation has made a gift to Child Crisis Arizona in support of its emergency Children’s Shelters. For more than 4 years, the Enterprise Holdings Foundation has supported the agency’s work with vulnerable children and families.

Child Crisis Arizona operates the only emergency shelters for children threatened with abuse and neglect from birth to 11 in the Valley, Child Crisis Arizona provides hope and services to vulnerable children and families. It is also the leading agency in our state to license, train and support foster and adoptive families, and provides early childhood education and resources for families through its early education services, parenting classes, workshops and playgroups.

“Child Crisis Arizona would like to thank Timothy Flaherty from Enterprise Holdings and Mike Crouser from Berkshire Hathaway Automotive for visiting our shelter, we are grateful to have their support of the work we do,” says Torrie A. Taj, Child Crisis Arizona CEO.

The Enterprise Holdings Foundation is the philanthropic arm of Enterprise Holdings, which, through its regional subsidiaries, operates the Enterprise Rent-A-Car, National Car Rental and Alamo Rent A Car brands.
