

Child Crisis Arizona announces sponsorship of USDA Care Food Program

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (November 9, 2020) – Child Crisis Arizona announced its sponsorship of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Child and Adult Care Food Program administered by the Arizona Department of Education, Community Nutrition Programs. Meals will be made available to enrolled participants at no separate charge without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. Household income determines the amount of money institutions will be reimbursed to provide meals to enrolled participants. The income-eligibility guidelines listed below are used to determine the amount of reimbursement.

About Child Crisis Arizona

For more than 44 years, Child Crisis Arizona (CCA) has served the Valley's vulnerable children and families and is committed to ending child abuse and neglect through prevention, education and intervention programs. CCA offers emergency shelters for children, teen moms and their babies; a group home for teen boys in the foster care system; foster care and adoption services; as well community-wide parenting classes, workshops, support groups and early education programs for low-income families. Since 1977, Child Crisis Arizona has positively affected over 60,000 children and families. Our vision is "Safe Kids. Strong Families."
